

Louise Rowe

At 86
I'm STILL Dancing with my
Red Baby Bass playing with my band,

THE TEXAN PLAYBOYS!

BIOGRAPHY

Louise's professional music career began in Dallas.

- 1950 Big D Jamboree
- 1951 Joined Jim Boyd/WFAA TV
- 1952 Joined Bob Wills as Vocalist.
- 1953 Became only lady Bob Wills Texas Playboy musician
- 1955 Toured as Bassist & Vocalist for:
Grand Ol' Opry Stars: Minnie Pearl,
George Gones, Faron Young,
Billy Walker & Little Jimmy Dickens
- 1981 Invented patented color code system
("The Buddy System") for learning the Fiddle with hubby, Buddy Beasley
- 1980's Produced several albums
Joined Al Dressen's Super Swing Revue and member of the
TEXAS WESTERN SWING HALL OF FAME BAND
- 1987 Inducted into the
to WESTERN SWING HALLS OF FAME,
1995 Texas, Colorado, Nevada, Nebraska,
Arizona, Wyoming, & California.
- 1992 Painted Pam Tillis Fanfair '92 booth
Awarded BEST MURAL
- 2009 Beat cancer with the help of musician friends
- 2011 Awarded "LIVING LEGEND OF TEXAS"
by the State of Texas
- 2018 "Pioneer Of Western Swing Music"
BY NORTHWEST WESTERN SWING
MUSIC SOCIETY

Featured in: "Texas Monthly", "Texas Music", "Texas Highways" & Buddy Magazine